OUR TOWN

A town is as strong an influence as school on the minds of students. It holds the homes and hearts of all of us and provides facilities for our leisure moments. And, so, we justly portray our Town as the central theme of our yearbook, as it is truly the central theme of our lives while at East Windsor High School.

MR. BERTRAND CHASSE

The many fine qualities that you have shown in the classroom have been appreciated by all of us, Mr. Chasse, especially now when we are about to graduate. You have not only helped us to better understand and appreciate our country and its democratic systems, but also helped us in times of indecision with a sincerity we will not soon forget. Your exuberant nature has inspired us to do our best and to learn the truth for ourselves. These are gifts we will use many times in the years following graduation.

For your assistance, example, and incentive, we—the Class of 1964—award you our highest honor, the dedication of our yearbook.

ADMINISTRATION

Board of Education

When this picture was taken Mr. Charles C. Brewer and Mr. F. Freeman Patten were not present.

Assistant Principal Leonard Tyl

Principal's Message

To the Members of the Class of 1964:

If it is true that we all need direction and inspiration as we try to make our ways in life, we may turn to men and women whose lives and experiences may give us clues to self-realization.

One source I commend to you is John F. Kennedy who said he found the rewards of his work were those of the Greek definition of happiness: "The full use of your powers along lines of excellence."

This may be his greatest legacy, especially to young men and women. Will you accept yours?

George A. Donovan, Principal

In Memoriam

John F. Kennedy

35th President of the United States

Born May 29, 1917

Inaugurated January 20, 1961

Died November 22, 1963

O Captain! My Captain!

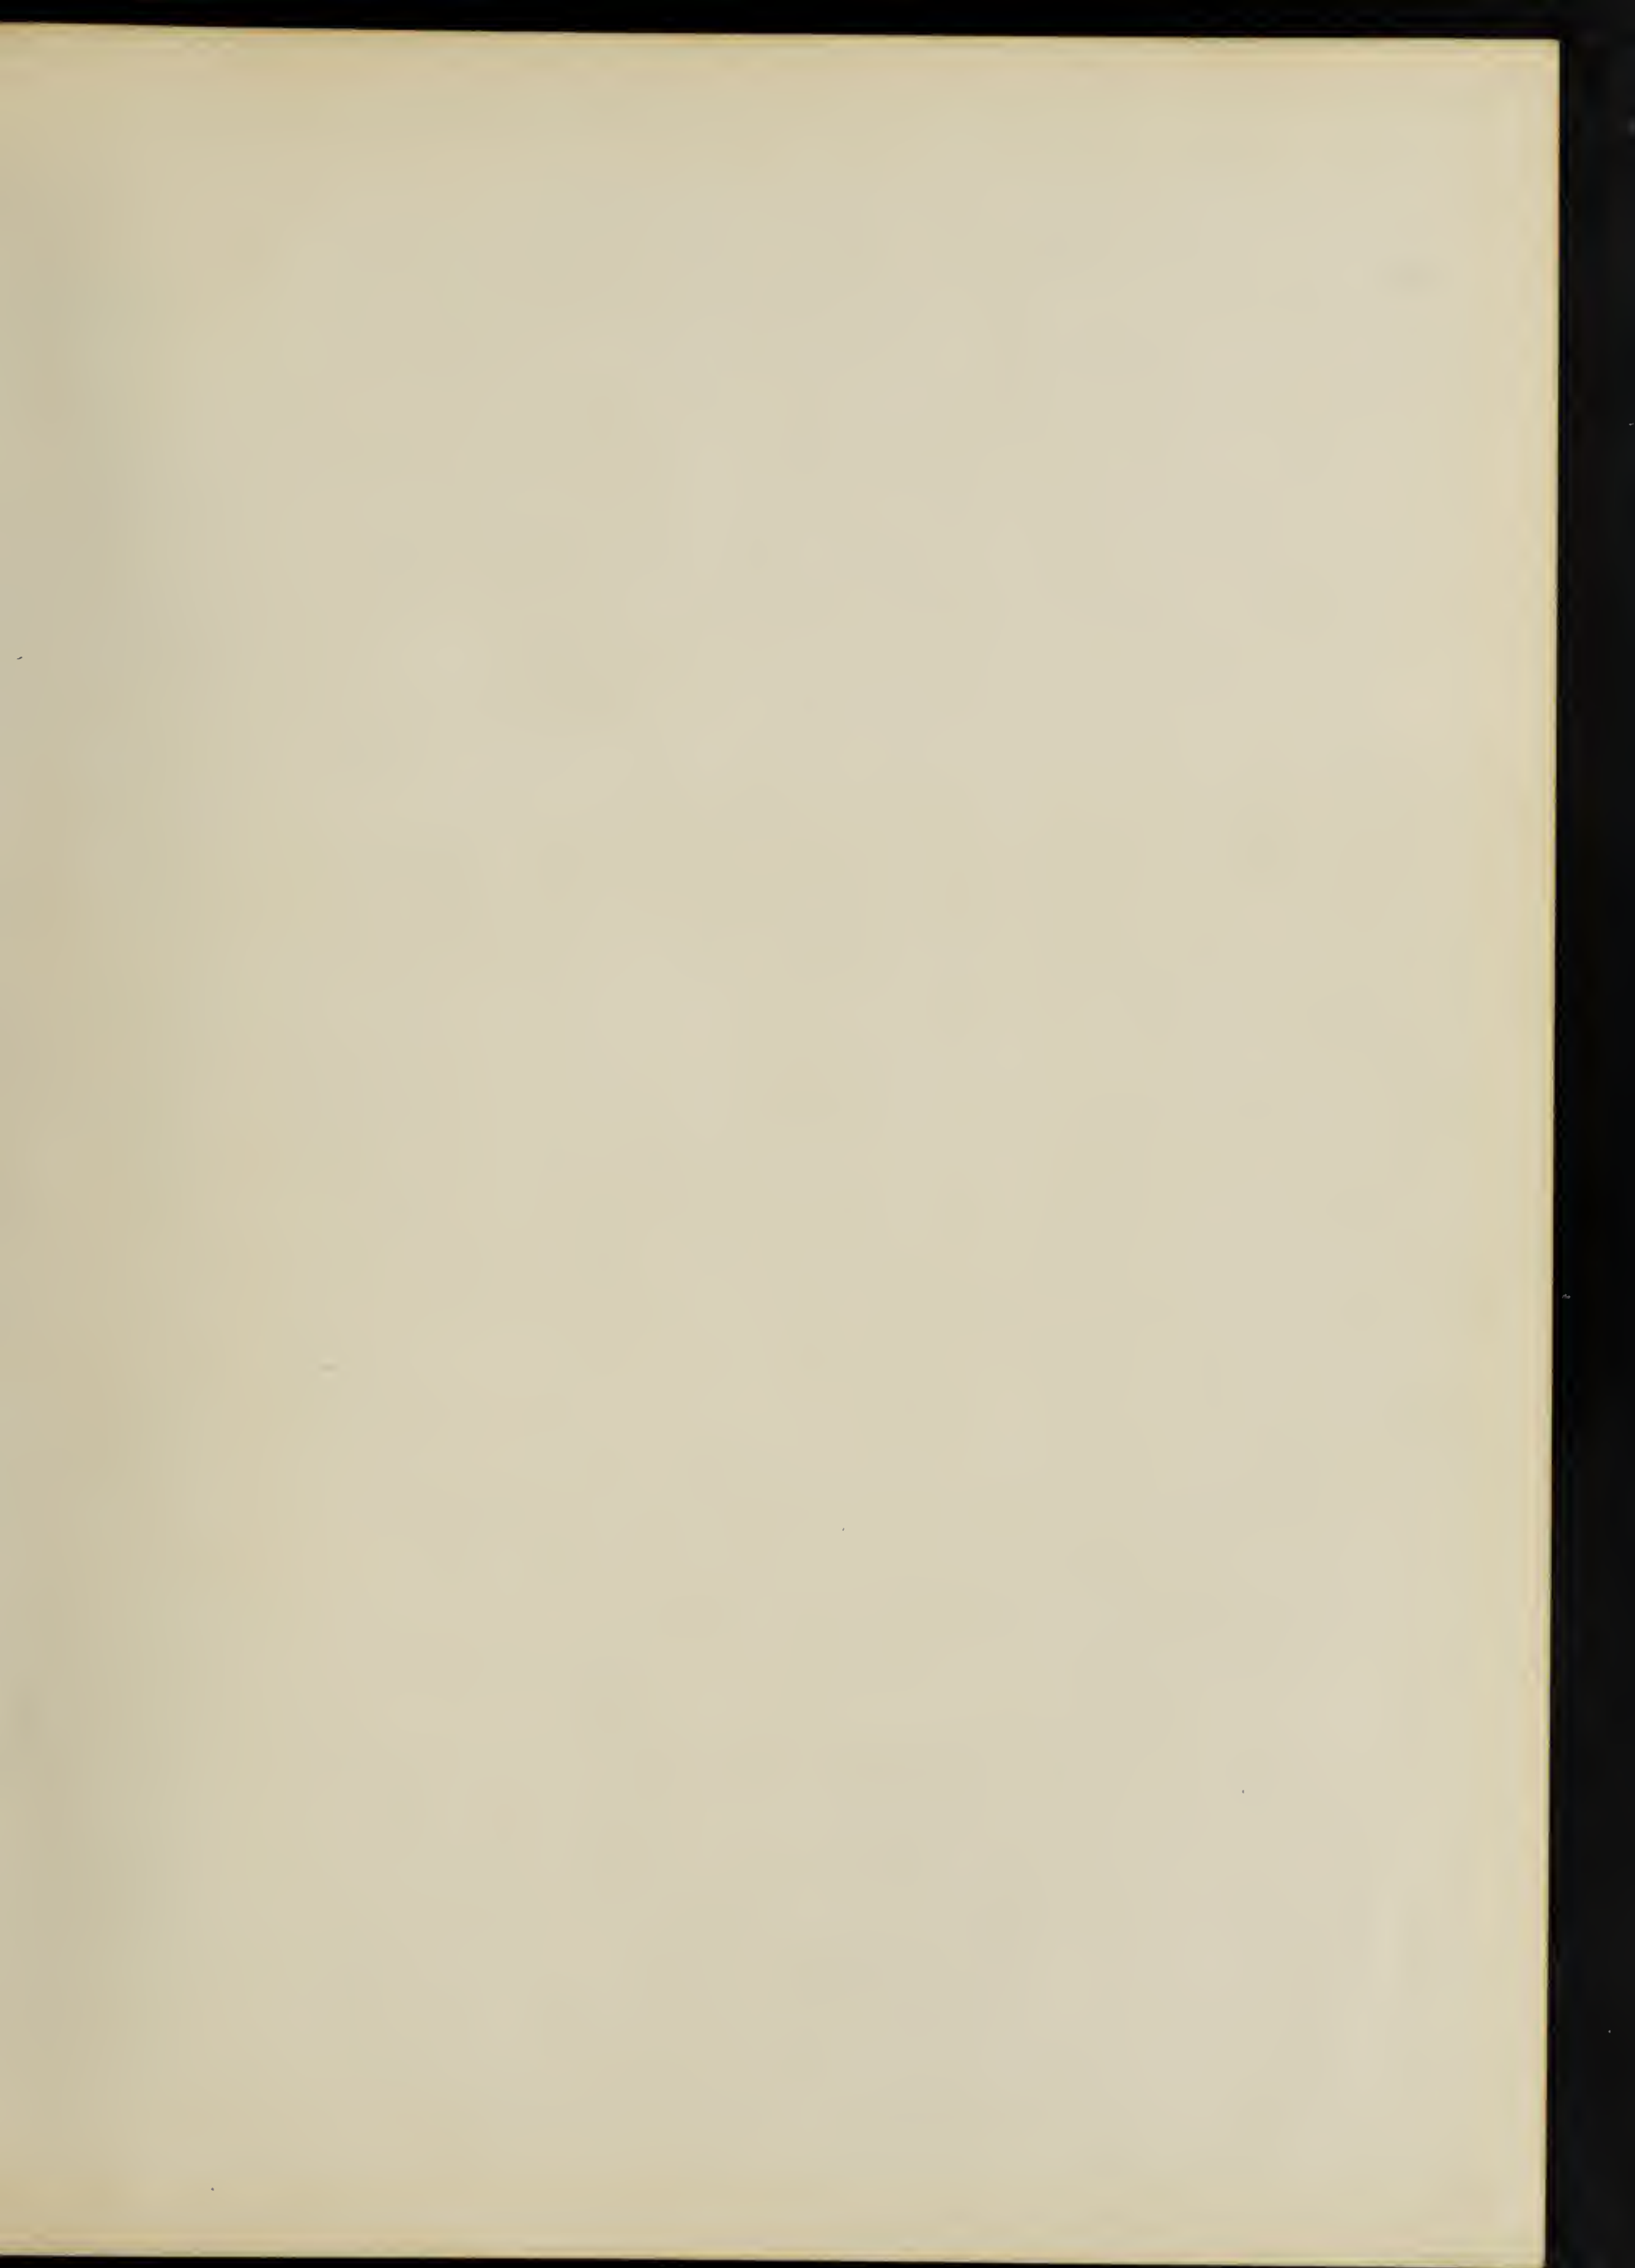

O Captain! My Captain! Our fearful trip is done,
The ship has weathered every rack, the prize
we sought is won;
The port is near, the bells I hear, the people all exulting, While follow eyes the steady keel, the vessel grim and daring;
But O heart! heart! heart!
O the bleeding drops of red,
Where on the deck my Captain lies,
Fallen cold and dead.
O Captain! My Captain! Rise up and hear the bells; Rise up — for you the flag is flung — for
you the bugle trills,
For you bouquets and ribboned wreaths — for you the shores a-crowding,
For you they call, the swaying mass, their eager faces turning;
Here, Captain! Dear father!
This arm beneath your head!
It is some dream that on the deck,
You've fallen cold and dead.
My Captain does not answer, his lips are pale and still,
My father does not feel my arm, he has no pulse nor will,
The ship is anchored safe and sound, its voyage closed and done,
From fearful trip the victor ship comes in with object won;
Exult, O shores, and ring, O bells!
But I, with mournful tread,
Walk the deck my Captain lies,
Fallen cold and dead.

Walt Whitman, 1819-1892
